THE MOST IMPORTANT ISSUE.

In order to retain her government, it is absolutely necessary that the State of Nevada make great retrenchment in her expenses. It costs us nearly as much to run as it does Ohio or Illinois. We should have a constitutional amendment to reduce our heads of government to three, like Oregon, or four, like Colorado. We could have a Governor, Treasurer and a Secretary of State. They could do the sitting around that is now done by the Surveyor-General, Attorney-General, Superintendent of Instruction and all the rest. A staff of clerks would be able, under their supervision, to do all the clerical work. The people of Nevada should attend to this matter at the very start, which is at the primaries. They should choose for Governor a sharp business man who has property and pays taxes. Such a man would want less office-holders and lower taxes, while if they elect a politician, he will want all his friends and helpers to get an office. So he will not want them reduced. The more offices there are the better for him. The next Governor should be a man who would not obstruct such an amendment to the Constitution.

ENGLAND'S POSITION.

Whatever differences of opinion may be entertained about the justice and wisdom of the British policy in Egypt, it is admitted on all hands that its preparations for heavy fighting which it may be called upon to do, by land or sea, are the most complete and effective. Everybody has been taken by surprise by the energy which Gladstone's administration has displayed in this matter. Indeed, it has been the least reason to anticipate this source. Months ago there would in all human probability have been no Egyptian crisis. Gladstone seems fully resolved to prove to all Europe that it can't do to jump at the conclusion that England will not fight because Liberals are in power. He is certainly not taking any half measures. Fully 50,000 are now either in Egypt or on their way. A far more efficient and complete force than Wellington commanded at Waterloo.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

John Gillig, the Comstock hardware man, and the Hon. W. W. Bishop, of Eureka, will most likely present their names to the Republican Convention for the gubernatorial nomination.

It is said that Ormsby county Republicans will either send an unpurged or an anti-Kinkadee delegation to the Convention.

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEVITIES.

—There are 349 Chinese in Chicago, two being women.

—Mankato, Kansas, was almost totally destroyed by fire last night.

—Judge Wm. Levy, of New Orleans, did not die last Thursday, but is still alive.

—M. E. Bennett, a prominent merchant at Lebanon, Tenn., was murdered and robbed last night.

—A Berlin dispatch announces the death of Baron Magnus, late German Minister to Copenhagen.

—Preston Bennett, Member of Parliament elect for Yale District, died at Victoria, B. C., yesterday.

—Two boys, David Heckinger and Henry Roche, were drowned in New York yesterday while bathing.

—Dr. Gordon died yesterday in Somerset county, Md., aged 61 years. He was a United States Senator from 1875 to 1879.

—A fire at Grant City, Mo., Saturday night, destroyed 13 business houses. Loss estimated from $50,000 to $60,000. Insurance, $10,000.

—The Empress of Germany, while out for a walk Saturday, slipped and fell to the ground. She received a severe shaking up and several slight contusions.

—Geo. Eden, a saloon keeper at Shelbyville, Mo., was shot and killed yesterday by someone who rode up to the door, fired and escaped. The murder is supposed to be the result of a political quarrel.

Foreign Gossip.

New York, August 14.

The Tribune cable says the action of the House of Lords, has been the chief item of interest this week. The House of Commons made important concessions to the second of the Peers' amendments, making a tenant-right and asset for rent under limitations, but refused by an enormous majority to yield on the first amendment requiring the tenant to obtain the landlord's assent before applying for the benefits of the Arrears bill. So recently as Monday the Marquis of Salisbury declared that dissolution would be necessary for the endorsement of such an outrageous bill, but at a private consultation of the Peers, after the decision of the House of Commons, five-sixths of them declined to follow him in creating a crisis. He had nailed his colors too tightly to the mast, and his followers proved refractory. When the House of Lords considered the Commons amendment, the Marquis of Salisbury declared he would have thrown out the bill if he could. In his bitter discomfiture he abused the measure in terms showing his shortcomings as a leader. Unlike Lord Beaconsfield, he has neither patience, steadfastness nor the spirit of concession. At the private meeting the revolt was led by the Duke of Richmond, who openly warned his colleagues of the dangers of the proposed course. Lord Salisbury's lack of self-control and obstinacy are jeopardizing his Lordship at the moment when his great rivals and foreign policy strengthen the Liberal party. There are rumors of the Tories rallying around the Duke of Richmond and Sir Stafford Northcote, Lord Salisbury sulking and refraining from attendance upon Parliament.

The Government is blamed for underestimating the Irish police grievances by neglecting to distribute the special grant. An opportunity was given for an agitation largely fictitious according to the formula long recognized in Ireland. "Ask and it shall be given." All accounts agree that the state of Ireland is greatly improving under Earl Spencer and Mr. Trevelyan. The arrest of Henry George is sharply commented on by the press and has given great annoyance to the Government. His so-called association with suspects arose from his visiting a shop to purchase a shirt button. A copy of his well-known pamphlets was deemed sufficient cause for his conviction.

More Trouble.

Pittsburg, August 14.

The labor situation has assumed a new phase on account of the reported sale of the workmen's organization to one of the old political parties. It is alleged the coming convention of workmen in Philadelphia, is to be packed with rounders and feelers, who can outbid the laboring class and carry out the plans of the politicians. Jarrett is consequently preparing a circular designed to prevent this scheme and it will be signed by officials representing 4,000 workmen in Pittsburg District.

Closing the Gap.

DENVER, Col., August 13.

The Utah extension of the Denver & Rio Grand Railway is completed to Cimarron, 330 miles from Denver, and 407 miles from Salt Lake. As the company has now completed and in operation in Utah about 108 miles, extending eastward from Salt Lake, less than 300 miles remains to be built to complete the connecting link. The grading is nearly finished, and preparations for rapid tracklaying indicate the opening of this new through line by December 31.

Sickness at Long Branch.

LONG BRANCH, August 13.

The guests at the hotel near La Bright are startled by the sickness from typhoid fever of the brother-in-law of Cyrus Field Jr., and his relatives say he cannot be moved for 10 days. The proprietor of the hotel says he will close the hotel to-morrow, unless the friends of the sick man pay him $5,000. Thus far, they have refused.

Fire in Pennsylvania.

LANCASTER, Pa., August 13.

This afternoon the barn of Samuel N. Wells was burned by an incendiary. While the fire was in progress, the County Insane Asylum near by, was discovered to be on fire and was destroyed. Loss, $70,000. Insured, $85,000. The inmates, 114 in number, were all saved.

Defrauding His Creditors.

WABASH, Ind., August 14.

Ron Gress, a prominent farmer near Lake Ione, who was implicitly trusted by his neighbors, has absconded, leaving creditors to the extent of six thousand dollars, one of whom is his mother.

Horrible Murder.

EVANSVILLE (Ind.), August 13.

This morning Alexander Wieser, a German saloon keeper, his wife and son, seven years old, were found murdered in their house—the father and mother in bed and the boy in an adjoining room. They were evidently killed while attempting to escape. The heads of all were crushed with a hatchet and their throats cut and mangled in a most brutal manner. An infant of six months was found unharmed in its crib. The most intense excitement prevails, and vigorous efforts were made to discover the perpetrators. The premises were ransacked, but nothing apparently taken. Leroy Lenhart, Chas. W. Carter and a disreputable young man named Joe Byrd have been arrested on suspicion. About six years ago a man named Krugg was murdered on the premises.

They Cannot Come This Way.

NEW YORK, August 14.

The Graphic says the Collector of Customs at Baltimore has forwarded the Secretary of the Treasury a communication asking for instructions upon an application made for the landing of a party of Chinese laborers en route home from Cuba. Acting Secretary French has replied that under the Chinese Immigration bill they cannot land.

Dramatic News.

NEW YORK, August 14.

Miss Erbes, a French actress, arrived yesterday afternoon from Russia on the steamship Arizona. She comes to fulfill an engagement entered into previous to her departure for this country last season. She proposes to play a round of characters similar to those performed by Miss Neilson and Madame Modjeska. Miss Erbes has come here direct from St. Petersburg, stopping only a short time in London.

New Jersey Politics.

WASHINGTON, August 14.

Private information from New Jersey is that Robeson is probably beaten for re-nomination in his district, and it is said that Seawell, who defeated Robeson for the United States Senate last year, wants to see his enemy retired to private life, and kept there. He is afraid if Robeson is re-elected to Congress he will be the successor of his Democratic colleague, McPherson, in the Senate.

Asphyxiated.

PULLMAN, Ill., August 13.

Patrick Meehan, an employee in the Pullman Works, went into Chicago Saturday night on business, leaving his two little girls 7 and 9 years old, in his cabin, missed the last train and was compelled to remain in the city all night. On returning home in the morning, he discovered that the children had blown out the gas and smothered to death.

To the Memory of Fanny Parnell.

CHICAGO, August 13.

The Irish societies in this city participated in the demonstration to the memory of the late Fannie Parnell this afternoon, and it was largely participated in. The demonstration consisted of a procession, speeches by local orators, passage of memorial resolutions and the reading of Miss Parnell's appeal to her countrywomen.

Yellow Fever Report.

LABRADO (Tex.), August 13.

During the 24 hours ended at eight o'clock p. m. August 12, Brownsville had 25 cases of yellow fever and one death. Matamoros had 23 new cases and eight deaths.

FOREIGN.

EGYPT'S TROUBLE.

England Getting a Good Ready-Armed Skirmish Reported—Arabi Pasha's Truce Withdrawn From Abouker.

LONDON, August 13.

The army for the occupation of Egypt will be reinforced by the First Army corps. A number of regiments have been ordered to be in readiness for active service. The troop ship Malabar, at Portsmouth, is under orders to take this week about two thousand additional officers and men to strengthen regiments already in Egypt, while a further detachment of artillery will embark on the transport Lemot at Woolwich.

ALEXANDRIA, August 13.

The Cold Stream guards landed this morning and marched to Ramleh, where the whole brigade of foot guards are now encamped under command of the Duke of Connaught. General Allison having written to the commander of the German gunboat Habicht that security can now be guaranteed in Alexandria, the German sailors guarding the German hospital were yesterday withdrawn. This removes the last foreign landing party.

GIBRALTAR, August 13.

The transport Nepal, with the 42d regiment, has passed here on her way to Egypt.

ALEXANDRIA, August 14.

Church services were held Sunday afternoon in the city.

The main defenses appear to be finished. It is rumored that Arabi Pasha is sending laborers away to avoid the necessity of feeding them. The Duke of Connaught applied to have the marines brigaded with the guards. This is taken as a compliment by the former.

News has just been received of a skirmish to the westward, of Al-Kandria, beyond Meks Fort. The sailors and marines drove a number of Arabs back with the fire of a small field-piece. No loss on the English side. Foreigners are beginning to grumble, and have formed a so-called vigilance committee to watch Europeans. This movement has been the source of considerable trouble to Sir Garnett Wolseley.

ALEXANDRIA, August 13.

After the guards had been inspected General Aduy formed the officers into a circle and pointed out the duties and hard-hips of campaigning. He reminded them that they must be prepared to meet an enemy of great strength, courageous, determined and well armed. He cautioned them against being too sanguine and overconfident, and to guard against surprises.

Arabi Pasha's truce on Abouker ridge has been drawn in.

CONSTANTINOPLE, August 14.

As an indication of the spirit which animates from the Porte in sending troops to Egypt it is stated that 20 Christian medical men, who had been appointed to accompany the Egyptian expedition and who had received pay and made every preparation for departure, were stopped at the last moment and their places supplied by Mussulmans. A resolution proclaiming Arabi Pasha a rebel was reached only after a protracted discussion between the Palace clique and the Ministerial party. The Minister of Foreign Affairs insisted upon the necessity of such a proclamation, and he also declared that war with England would be a terrible calamity for Turkey, because Russia was ready to march into Asia Minor, and Austria march on Salonica. Arabi Pasha was invited to lay down his arms and until a reply is received from him the report will not become official.

ALEXANDRIA, August 14.

It is reported that a party from the gunboat Candor went ashore Sunday and destroyed stores of gun cotton etc., beyond Meks Fort, belonging to the enemy. The skirmish beyond Meks, reported in a previous dispatch, occurred on this occasion. Several of the enemy were killed.

ALEXANDRIA, August 14.

Fires of considerable magnitude are visible to day in the rear of the enemy's position at Kingman.

The steamer Holland with the Household Cavalry and the troop ship Outes with the Cameron Highlanders, have arrived.

CONSTANTINOPLE, August 14.

The Mussulman jurists, whom the Sultan frequently consults, explain that Arabi Pasha, insofar as he disobeyed Caliph, is a rebel, and may be unceremoniously treated as such, but insofar as he has been a defender of the Mohammedan country against the aggressive designs of Christians, he has merited the duty of a good Mussulman, and consequently Caliph cannot make common cause with England. "The Sultan may punish Arabi Pasha if some act of rebellion is proved against him, but he must not associate himself with those who wish to crush Arabi Pasha as a defender of Islam. The correspondent says this will greatly influence Turkish military action.

Ireland's Troubles.

MANCHESTER, August 14.

At the demonstration to day in connection with the Land League convention, Commins presided. Biggar and Tremor were present. Commins claimed the Irish party had forced the House of Commons to yield more than the House ever intended. He urged the party to continue its united efforts to abolish the Union. Resolutions thanking the Irish National party were passed. Biggar claimed that the Irish party contains some of the ablest men in the House of Commons. O'Connor urged his hearers to renewed efforts in the next general election.

Riot Fanned in Dublin.

DUBLIN, August 13.

It is stated that guns have been placed in the upper yard of the Castle, and other precautions taken, in view of possible riots during the O'Connell demonstration. Large bodies of infantry paraded the streets with guns to-night, causing some excitement. The authorities are reticent in regard to the increased vigilance.

King, Getaway.

LONDON, August 14.

Cetawayo, King of the Zulus, has arrived at Osburn. It is rumored that the Queen has granted him an interview and will inform him of the decision of her government to restore him to his Kingdom. It is stated that a British resident will be appointed to reside at Ulundi, the Zulu capital, in order to give advice to him on questions relative to "extra external relations."
